

Voluntary Experience
@ Keele

“ It is a great way of meeting people and doing something other than my degree or sport that was worthwhile”

“Brill! Would recommend anyone to volunteer as it really brings another dimension to university life”

“ Volunteering helped improve my organisational and time management skills and also my leadership skills through being involved and running activities.”

“Meeting people from work environment and learning about job role”

“ The skills and experience from the various volunteering I did was the main factor in getting my first permanent job much more than my qualifications ”

“ Volunteering Increased my confidence and problem solving skills. Great for when I applied for a job as I was given a role of responsibility that I could not have had through paid employment without experience ”

“ Volunteering gave me confidence to communicate freely with English speakers; in the meantime it was an invaluable opportunity to polish my acquired skills in the UK work environment”
